

VANCOUVER MOVING THEATRE & JUMBLIES THEATRE

in co-operation with the Community Arts Council of Vancouver

are pleased to Present

the Downtown Eastside ARTS4ALL INSTITUTE

a creative laboratory and practicum for art that engages and celebrates community

Presentations, guest presentations, discussions, videos, hands-on workshops, creative explorations and resources to take home

This week-long intensive course will focus on the principles, practices and underpinnings of “community arts practice”, the tremendous value it has for communities and the things you need to know to launch your own project. Faculty instructors include three of Canada’s leading community artists, Ruth Howard of Toronto’s Jumblies Theatre, Savannah Walling of Vancouver Moving Theatre and Cathy Stubington of Enderby’s Runaway Moon theatre.

Thursday Nov. 12th (evening) and all day Nov. 13-15, 17-19. 2009
Various venues in Vancouver’s Downtown Eastside

the Downtown Eastside ARTS4ALL INSTITUTE

WHO IT'S FOR

- People interested and experienced in art and other processes that engage the community
- Downtown Eastside community artists ready for leadership roles

Public sessions and some part-time participation opportunities will be available. Details to follow.

TOPICS INCLUDE

- Definitions, values and principles
- Developing your own vision
- Project start-up and basics
- Planning and partnerships
- Budgets and grant-writing
- Arts-based and oral history research
- Facilitation skills
- Documentation and evaluation, legacy and sustainability
- Challenges and rewards, aesthetics and ethics

CERTIFICATION

Those completing the course will receive a certificate from Vancouver Moving Theatre/ Jumbies

COST

$300 for full-time enrolment - Sliding scale bursaries are available for Downtown Eastside community members

ACCOMODATIONS

For out of town registrants, we can help you identify budget hotels

MEALS

First Lunch, Coffee/tea, otherwise bring or buy your own

To APPLY or for more info: please contact Susan Gordon at susangor@gmail.com or 604-874-8433 by October 17, 2009.

See www.vancouvermovingtheatre.com for more developing information.

A Downtown Heart of the City Festival Event

Limited to 25 participants selected partly on a first-come basis, but also with a view to creating a compatible and diverse group which includes Downtown Eastside community members. Applications arriving by October 17th will be assessed and space confirmed by Oct. 25. Late applications will be processed only if there is space.

BRITISH COLUMBIA
ARTS COUNCIL
We acknowledge the support of the Province of British Columbia through the British Columbia Arts Council

